

Section 3:

Question-2:

Here is an Reference Image of database table

Here, Students and Course are two separate independent tables. We created a third table named TestMarks which has Students_Id using foreign key Id from the students table and Course_Id using foreign key Id from the Courses table. It Keeps track of test with name, Marks and DateTime along with student and course id.